Coroners' Inquests.

The Lair Fatal Railroad Accident — Coroner Gamble yesterday held an inquest upon the body of the unknown man who, on Tuesday morning, was found lying on the track of the Hudson River Railroad, near 116th street, mutilated and dead. No evidence as te how the accident occurred was adduced. On Monday afternoon he was seen on the track, near Ninety-sixth street, by Humphrey Murray, an employe of the company. The jury rendered a verdict of "Death by being run over by a train on the Hudson River Railread, on the night of Oct. 24, 1853." He was about sixty-five years of age, 5 feet 7 inches in height, and was dreased in a black cloth overcoat, with buttons made of wood, figured vest, black pants, two cearse unslin shirty, and brogan shoes. His left arm was broken, his right arm cut off, and his face so mutilated that recognition would be difficult.

Fatal Fall.—Coroner Gamble yesterday held an inquest at the Bellevue Hospital, upon the body of Peter Duily, a native of Ireland, twenty years of age, who died from the effects of injury received on Tuesday afternoon, by falling through the well hele of a new building in Fifth avenue, near Twenty-seventh street, a distance of forty-five feet, the plank upon which he was standing at the time having broken. A verdict of accidental death was rendered by the jury.

The Expedition to Sonora.

The Alla California says:—There is some degree of interest, and more of oursoity manifested on the part of the public, in the movements of the supposed leaders of the supposed secret expedition to Sonora, of which a great deal has been raid, and of which there is little known. The sudden and unexpected return of a small party of gentlemen who visited Guaymas a few months since, for the reception of the expedition, revived popular attention to the subject. The authorities are watchful, but find nothing suspicious. The gentlemen presumed to be at the head of the movement are, in the meantime, quietly pursuing their ordinary occupations, and if they are organizing an expedition, they are very judicious about it. It is said the party will sail in the course of two or three weeks, perhaps sconer, but there is no reason to suppose they have fixed upon a day of departure. If they have, it is certainly not the time assigned by those not in the secret.

and the government at Washington would be compelled under the treaty to disclaim the movement, or clee acknowledge the power of private individuals to declare and wage war in the name of the United States. If the expedition go into Mexico peaceably, and conform to the terms of the treaties existing between the two countries, there will be no ground of complaint. If the expeditions goes down, it will go on its own responsibility neither asking nor expecting aid or protection from the government, and cannot, independently of other causes, produce national hostility. The probability however is, that there will be no expedition at present, and that there will be no expedition at present, and that there will be an outbreak of hostilities without it. THE PETITION FOR THE REMOVAL OF THE MINISTERS

Our dates from Honolulu are to the 27th of August. The commiftee appointed so consider the petition for the removal of the rimisters, Judd and Armstrong, reported on the 16th of August adversely to the petition.

The popular feeling, particularly among the foreigners who are almost unanimous, appear to run high against the misionaries. The Polynesian charges the opposition with a desire to overthrow all the "penal laws." The opposition denies the charge, and say that the express enactments of the missionaries, to which they are principally opposed, are those to enforce the outward observance of religious ceremonies, which do not make the people better but only hypocritical. The missionaries appear to be securely scated in their official positions.

The papers are almost entirely filled with articles, editorial and communicated, on the conduct of the missionaries.

Accident on the Long Island Railroad. WONDERFUL ESCAPS OF THE PASSENGERS.

Yesterday afterneon, at about 4 o'clock, a freight train on its way to Brooklyn, to which was attached two passenger cars filled with Brooklyn policemen on their re-turn from a target excursion at Jamaica, broke the axle of the forward car, throwing both off the track, and in that way they were dragged for some distance before the engineer could be notified of the difficulty. The platform and wheels of the cars were torn off, and the bottom of the rear car was completely demolished, bundling the relate no one received any serious injury. We learned at first that the arms of several of the men were broken; this report subsequently turned out to be only their fire arms, detached pieces of their muskets having been found strewed upon the track. The accident took place at Wood Haven, and caused a delay on the roas of several hours; the passengers going East were compelled to change cars.

Theatrical and Musical.

Bowery Theatrical and Musical and his adventures will be interestially portrayed at the Bowery this evening, with Mr. E. M. y. and Mrs. Parker in the leading characters. The afterpiece is the drama of "The Flying Butchman," fullof startling effects, etc., etc.

Broadwart Theatrics.—The English tragedian, Mr. James Ancerson, plays "Othello" to night, Mr. Conway will sustain him as "lego," Mr. Pope as Cassie: Med. Ponisi as Desdemona, and Mrs. Abbott as English. The sparking comic drama "Coosin Cherry," with Miss Gougenheim as the dashing widow, will form a pleasing antidote to the serious tragedy.

Borron's Theatric.—The patrons of the theatre in Chambers street will be regaled to night with three light pieces.—"Trying it Cn." with Mr. Jordan in the principal character: "The Young Actress," in which Miss Robertson does so many things well, and "Parks and London," with the whole company, including Burton and Placide.

National. Theatric.—"Cucle Tom's Cabin" is still continued at this theatre, and a new tableau, "Little Eva in Heaven," has been arranged to end the piece, the whole company singing a religious anthem, "Wake I fales of the South," which must have a fine effect.

At Wallack's Theatric, "Blesk House" is again to be performed, with the original cast of characters. The famous farce "Popping the Queen's Own" and "State McKican Missium.—"The Queen's Own" and "State Secrets" are announced for to day, and in the evening the AMERICAN MUSEUM.—"The Queen's Own" and "State Secreta" are announced for to day, and in the evening the young folks can be gratified by a visit to the 'O'd Folks at Home," who will be happy to see all their friends. The giraffes are as tall and amasing as ever, while the Beard ed Lady continues to be interestingly hirsute.

Francon.—The Hippodrome still holds its place among the lions of the town. The new feature of the English steeple chase is quite attractive.

CHRETY'S MINSTREMS, at the old place, Mechanico Hall, continue to please all their visiters, as they have done for the last seven years. Their vocal and instrumental music is simple and popular.

Julien gave his first concert in Boston on Monday evening. The Evening Traveller says:—Owing to the violence of the storm, and partly to the dollar price of tickets, there was rather a thin attendance. The band numbered sixty, with, as we thought, quite too small a proportion of violins, which, in the forte passages, were overborne by the tremendous might of the brass and wood instruments. In the performance of a classical symphony, though occasionally grand and imposing, they are somewhat deficient in delicacy and retinement, as well as in the unity which should be the pervading charm of a perfect performance. The overture to "Dor Freischutz" was in some respects better done than we ever heard it, as was the Scotch movement of Mendelischn's A minor symphony; but the larghetta of Beethoven's in D, we have heard much better played. Of their solo performers, however, it is impossible to speak too highly. On thewhole, we think these fullion concerts are rather for the million than for the select few, and that the price of tickets should be regulated accordingly.

Police Intelligence.

Arreit of a Woman for Taching Children to Steal—Curious Development.—Officers McCready and McGrath, of the Second ward yesterday arrested a woman named Adelia Butler, and her daughter Genet, the former charged with inducing the daughter, a child eleven years of age, and a little girl named Mary Hampton, whose parents reside at No. 201 Seventh street, to steal, and the latter charged with picking the pocket of a Mrs. Ann Frazer of $1.70, while in one of the Third avenue cars. The girl Mary Hampton was arrested by Captain Leonard, of the Second ward police, a short time since, for picking pockets at the American Museum, and when taken before his honor the Mayer, she stated that she had been induced by Mrs. Butler to commit the act, and further that for more than a year past she had, in company with the daughter of Mrs. Butler, been in the habit of picking pockets of persons riding in stages and cars, which vehicles they frequently rode in for that purpose; and that they had also attended unany places of amusement solely for that purpose. She also stated that Mrs. Butler had induced them to pursue this course by giving them money to ride with, and by rewarding ther with a few shillings each time they were successful in thieving. Mr. Christopher Hampton, father of the child Mary, yesterday called on the Chief of Police, and stated that upwards of a year since Mrs. Butler decoyec his daughter from the school of Rev. Mr. Clapp, in the church of the Nativity. Avenue C, noar Sixth street, and for weeks the child was lost to him, and was under the tuition of the woman Butler, who taught her the art of picking pockets, by requiring her to pick her own (Mrs. Butler's) pocket, and when she has been repeatedly decoyed away by Mrs. Butler, and kept from him for several days, and even weeks, before he could ascertain where she was, on some occasions, when he suspected Laveny and Receiving Stolen Geods.—Jacob Lewis, keeper of a small store at the corner of Chatham and North William streets, was yesterday arrested by constable Gicke, of the Sixth ward, charged with foloniously buying a quantity of jewelry valued at ninety dollars, which had been stolen from Peter Schlosser, of No. 24 Duam street, by one Moses Dunn. The property was found concented on the premises of the accused, who had previously denied all knowledge of it, and he was committed by Justice Osborn to await examination.

A Toung Fickpocki—A boy named Patrick O'Connell was on Tuesday evening detected in the act of taking a purse, containing $9.50, from the pocket of Mrs. Mary Corvin, of 265 East Seventeenth street, while sine was standing near Stuyvesant's park witnessing a procession he ran off; but the alarm being given he was pursued and arrested by officer Willis, of the Fifteenth ward, and locked up for trial by Justice McGrath.

Williamsburg City Intelligence.

Omnurs Upers—Several Persons Injurers.—As one of the Cypress Hill line of stages was passing through Messerole street, near Division avenue, on Tuesday evening, containing nineteen passengers, it was upset, and several of the passengers considerably injured, in consequence of the wheels coming in contract with and partly passing over a large pile of bard morter, which had been left laying rearly in the middle of the street for several months. Wm. Yorkes, residing in Franklin street, New York had his thigh fractured, and another gentleman also residing in New York had his shoulder dislocated. A lady had her nose broken, and another received a severa gash over the eyes. The driver had both wrists badly sprained. The city authorities should take some immediate steps toward having the heaps of rubbish which are to be seen in nearly every street in the city, cleared away, and have the streets kept in a safe condition for pedestrians and vehicles. Slave Case in Kentucky.

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer, Oct. 23.]

It will be remembered that a few weeks since we stated that a suit had been brought in the Covington (Ky.) Circuit Court. Judge Pryor presiding, by a colored man named Samuel Norris against J. N. Patton, of Virginia, to establish his freedom. The suit was argued in the above court yesterday. The particulars, as far as we can learn them, are that Norris, who has been living in Covingtom for several years, where he married a free woman and has several children, was permitted by his master, Patton, to hire his own time, paying him, through his agests, Withers & Co., of this city, his annual hire, which he always did promptly. The amount stipulated, we believe, was $100 per annum. About two years since Patton came to Cincinnati and sent for Sam to visit him, which he did at the house of his agests, Withers & Co., at which time the following agreement was mace; Patton agreed to liberate Sam, or allow him to buy himself by paying the sum of $400 within four years. The surplus, whatever it might be, was to belong to the slave. In accordance with which agreement was mace; Patton $124, and has paid him since $50 more. It was expressly understood that Patton was not to sell him suring the four years. This part of the agreement Patton attempted to violate, to prevent which this suit was brought. The cause was decided yesterday in favor of the defendant, and the suit dismissed by Judge Pryor upon the following grounds:—

1. That the statutes of Kentucky recognise only two ways of liberating slaves—first, by will; second, by deed of emancipation.

2. That a lave, by law, is not allowed to enter into any centrack.
